

DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Bradley Lytle on February 26, 2009.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the abstract:

Replace the abstract with the new abstract:

--A remote controller terminal uses a function item information receiving unit to receive function item information representing functions of an information terminal device to be operated, which is directly transmitted from the information terminal device, and uses a processing command transmitting unit to directly transmit a processing command corresponding to the received function item information to the information terminal device in accordance with user's input operation, and the device uses a processing command receiving unit to receive the processing command directly transmitted from the remote controller terminal, and uses a control unit to control the function corresponding to the processing command in order to execute predetermined processing in accordance with the instructions from the remote controller terminal without having a wired connection. --

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 22-28 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record does not teach or suggest the applicant's invention as claimed in detail. See applicant's remarks of January 29, 2009.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
